Winants Hall, 7 College Ave., New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1262 (908) 932-6773

February 1993

Dear Livingston Alumnus:

Our annual event is here. Yet, your participation is essential for this event to be an enormous success. We have put together an evening of top-notch entertainment, some wine, cheese, prizes, plus a great opportunity to see some long lost friends.

It is the holder of this invitation's responsibility to invite friends, family, and of course any Livingston alumni (of your choosing, of course).

Below you will find all the essential details. If you have any questions, please contact either one of our co-chairs for this event: Mr. Jeff Isaacs, President of the Livingston Alumni Association, Class of '84, (908) 922-9550 or Ms. Grace Gurman, President of the Livingston College Class of 1981, (201) 791-4486.

The Event: Singer Maureen McGovern and the New Jersey Symphony, at the State Theatre, New Brunswick.

Date: Saturday, April 24, 1993

Time: 6:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.

Meeting Place: Winants Hall, 7 College Avenue (Old Queens), New Brunswick. We will be leaving Winants Hall at 7:30 p.m. to take a short walk to the theatre for the 8:00 p.m. performance. Call us if you cannot pinpoint the building's exact location.

Price: $22 per ticket for LAA dues-paying members, $27 per ticket for all others, $5 of which will be donated to the Lynton Scholarship Fund for a deserving Livingston College student

All checks with the reservation tear-off sheet should be sent no later than March 15, 1993. Checks should be made payable to the LAA. All tickets will be distributed at Winants Hall the evening of the performance.

The fun will begin upon your arrival . . .

Sincerely, Jeff & Grace

Fall 1994.

This semester the Department of Urban Studies and Community Health of the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy is holding a public lecture series on Urban Futures.

Livingston College was established twenty-five years ago with a mission that focused on education for urban residents and research in urban issues. This lecture series explores various aspects of cities and their residents considering, in particular, urban change and prospects for the future of cities. Our guest speakers include people who have considerable influence on urban life in New Jersey and people who have a long association with Livingston College.

Urban Futures is presented as part of Livingston 101, a continuing program of Livingston College.
